Not many people knew that little Jack's big brother was the famous reporter Ernie Jackson, who worked for the Calgary Times.

One Saturday, Ernie told Jack that he was investigating (调查) a very difficult case and that he was worried he couldn't solve it. The case was about Modeline Mulrooney, the richest woman in Calgary. Her diamond ring was missing.

"She thinks her swimming coach took it," Ernie said. "However, he says he hasn't stolen anything. I'm not sure who to believe."

"I'll help you," said Jack. "Let's interview Mrs. Mulrooney together."

The brothers went to Mrs. Mulrooney's home. Mrs. Mulrooney explained what happened. She said that she always put her ring on the coffee table before she swam in her pool. "The water in the pool isn't good for my ring, and it also dries my skin," she said. "I always put on hand cream and wear cotton gloves to bed."

"Where are the gloves now?" Jack asked.

"I throw them away each morning," she said, pointing to a rubbish bin.

Jack rushed over to the bin. He searched through it and pulled out many gloves. Carefully, he felt each one, and then he smiled.

"Your ring is right here," said Jack. "The cream was slippery, so your ring came off with this glove. You only noticed it after swimming."

"You solved the case?" shouted Ernie.

"You're my hero!" said Mrs. Mulrooney.

The next day, the headline of the Calgary Times read, "Young Reporter Discovers Missing Diamond!" Jack was excited and wondered if there were any more cases to solve.

5. Why did Mrs. Mulrooney take off her ring before swimming?

On January 4th, the China National Traditional Orchestra (中央民族乐团) played some well-known traditional music in their concert. Audiences (观众) enjoyed the beautiful sounds of guzheng, the powerful tones of suona, the tearful notes of erhu and so on. Each traditional Chinese musical instrument tells its own story.

“I’ve fallen in love with the sounds of traditional instruments, especially pipa, a four-stringed instrument with a history of more than 2,000 years. It can produce different sounds, such as the falling snow and raindrops. Every time I listen to a pipa tone, I have a strong feeling of peace,” said Yang Tian, one of the audiences of the concert.

However, a recent report suggests the number of traditional music listeners is dropping. To wake up people’s love for traditional music, something creative has been done.

In some traditional music concerts, VR (虚拟现实) technology is used to bring the starry sky or the beautiful sandy view of Dunhuang to the music hall. It makes the experience like watching a 3D movie.

Li Xiaobing, a music teacher from Beijing, mixes traditional folk singing and operas with Chinese instruments through technology. People are surprised at his works and they love them!

Some musicians try to add something new to traditional music. They bring modern music like pop and rap into traditional music. When the East meets the West, the new form of music wins the hearts of both the old and the young.

Traditional music shows the beauty of our culture, and with some creativity, great things happen.

9. How many traditional Chinese musical instruments are mentioned in the passage?

- A. One. B. Two. C. Three. D. Four.

10. What can we learn from the passage?

- A. Pipa can produce the most sounds in nature.
B. Chinese music has a longer history than western music.
C. Fewer people show interest in traditional music recently.
D. Different musical instruments can tell the stories in the same way.

11. To wake up people's love for traditional music, Li Xiaobing _____.

- A. tells many tearful stories with Chinese instruments
B. makes good 3D movies with VR technology
C. mixes traditional folk singing and operas with Chinese instruments
D. brings modern music into traditional music

12. According to the passage, the writer believes _____.

- A. traditional music should only be played in concerts
B. the ways to play traditional music must be changed
C. traditional music must remain unchanged all the time
D. traditional music with creativity will be more popular

①Have you ever seen a wooden barrel (桶)? It is made of many wooden pieces held together by metal rings. The Wooden Barrel Effect, also called the "Cask Effect", is a famous idea that comes from watching how a barrel works.

②Think about a barrel with wooden pieces of different lengths. Some pieces are long, but one piece is very short. When you fill this barrel with water, what will happen? The water will rise until it reaches the top of the shortest piece. Then it will begin to leak out (漏出). No matter how long the other pieces are, the barrel can never hold more water than the shortest piece allows.

③The effect teaches us something important. In a team, the weakest part often decides success. For example, in a basketball team, if one player keeps missing passes, the whole team may lose games. The team's performance is limited by its weakest member.

④This also works for personal growth. Each of us has strengths and weaknesses. Our weaknesses are like the short piece. To make progress, we should find our "short pieces" and improve them. For example, a student who may do well in math but has difficulty with English needs to spend more time and energy improving his English skills.

⑤However, there is another way to think about it. Sometimes, instead of fixing the short piece, we can change how we use the barrel. We can tilt (倾斜) it so that water flows to the longer pieces. This means we can make good use of our strengths while managing our weaknesses.

⑥In short, the Wooden Barrel Effect reminds us that success needs balance. Whether in teamwork or personal development, we should focus on weaknesses while making the most of our strengths.

13. What decides how much water a barrel can hold in Paragraph 2?

- A. The longest piece of the barrel.
- B. The total number of pieces.
- C. The shortest piece of the barrel.
- D. The total length of all pieces.

14. How does the writer explain the Wooden Barrel Effect?

- A. By giving examples.
- B. By telling stories.
- C. By asking questions.
- D. By listing reasons.

15. What can we infer from Paragraph 5 about dealing with weaknesses?

- A. Fixing weaknesses is always the perfect choice.
- B. Weaknesses will disappear if we don't focus on them.
- C. Strengths become weaker when we focus on weaknesses.
- D. Success can be achieved by making full use of our strengths.

16. Which of the following best shows the structure of the passage?

- A. ①②③/④⑤/⑥
- B. ①/②③/④⑤⑥
- C. ①②/③/④⑤⑥
- D. ①②/③④/⑤/⑥

阅读短文，然后根据内容回答问题。

Is it ever OK to lie to a child? My 10-year-old son plays soccer. He's not very good at it, but he loves it. Yesterday he played very badly but happily. When he finished the game, he asked, "Did I play well?" I said, "Yes! You are a great soccer player!" Did I do the right thing?

——Marisa

Yes, you did the right thing. Sometimes you have to tell lies that are not harmful. It's necessary to tell white lies in life. Your purpose was to make him feel good. Now he's ready to play soccer again.

——Bay 212

I don't think there is ever a good reason to lie to our children. Parents are children's examples. We should be honest in order to teach honesty to our children. If you keep hiding the truth from them, they will not trust you or respect you. Honesty is the first step to build a good relationship between parents and children.

——Bernie

You lied to make your son feel better, but you missed a good chance to teach him a life lesson. People should work hard for what they want. Maybe next time you can say, "No! You didn't play well today. Great soccer players practice a lot. Let's go and practice." The truth will make him strong and a good soccer player.

——Missy

Parents should be honest to their children, but they don't have to tell the whole truth. Next time when your son asks, "Did I play well?" you can say, "What do you think?" Then your son can tell you what he thinks. That way, everything you say is true, and you avoid the truth that hurts him.

——Parviz

41. What topic are they talking about?

42. Why is it necessary to tell children white lies in life according to Bay 212?

43. What opinion do Bernie and Missy have in common?

44. Whose opinion do you agree with? Why? Write 30 words or more.

【导语】本文是记叙文，讲述了作者在 UNICEF 做志愿者的心路历程：从初期工作琐碎、自我迷茫，到参与视频制作后收获成长，领悟到所有付出皆有意义，微小力量汇聚亦可创造价值。

21. 句意：当我加入联合国儿童基金会中国分部做志愿者时，我迫不及待想要立刻解决一些重大的社会问题。但是起初，我的工作仅仅是采访新员工、了解他们的培训情况。

前文“迫切想要解决重大社会问题”和后文“工作琐碎简单”是转折逻辑，But 表转折，符合语境。

22. 句意：我按要求完成工作，但说实话，我感觉自己并没有创造出我曾经想象的价值。

feel like 意为“感觉；觉得”，侧重表达内心主观感受，贴合句意。

23. 句意：几天后，我和其他志愿者被要求为联合国儿童基金会中国分部制作一个视频。

根据后文原文 Later on, the video was completed.（视频制作完成），全文后文全程围绕本次视频制作展开，可知此处任务是制作 video（视频）。

24. 句意：通过这项工作，我得以和资深员工合作，学习如何做好本职工作。

how 表方式、方法，how they understood their job 意为“如何做好自己的工作”，符合学习工作方法语境。

25. 句意：首先，做出重大的改变需要时间。

固定句型 doing sth. takes time 表示“做某事需要耗费时间”，为固定用法。spend、pay 主语必须是人；cost 主语多为事物、侧重“花费金钱”，均不适用。

26. 句意：其次，我们付出的时光永远都是值得的，无论耗时多久。

根据后文举例：建设学校周期漫长，但建成后会持续发展，可知作者想表达所有付出的时间永远都有意义。always（总是，永远）符合文章正向主旨。sometimes（有时）；hardly（几乎不）；seldom（很少）均和文意相反。

27. 句意：比如，助力建成一所学校可能要耗费漫长岁月。一旦它开始起步，就能够持续成长、长远发展。

begin 意为“开始；启动”，完美衔接前文漫长建设、后文后续发展的逻辑。come（到来）；leave（离开）；finish（完成）均无法衔接句意。

28. 句意：除此之外，我发现哪怕我们做的“最微小的事”，也可以是有价值的。

全文核心主旨：微小行动、日常小事也拥有独特意义。valuable（有价值的）贴合全文中心。terrible（糟糕的）；challenging（有挑战的）；exciting（令人兴奋的）均不符合文章主旨。

29. 句意：后来视频制作完成了，它展示了联合国儿童基金会中国分部的工作。在视频当中，一些员工奋战在一线，一些人在办公室处理文书工作，而我负责采访新员工。

固定搭配 in it 指代“在视频内容里”，用来引出影片内的具体画面。On/Behind/Under 介词均无法用于描述视频内部内容。

30. 句意：我明白了，每个人都在用自己的方式贡献力量，无论行动多么微小。

固定搭配 in one's own ways 意为“用某人自己的方式”，贴合句意与固定搭配。record（记录）；plan（计划）；wish（愿望）均不符合语境。

31. marks 32. from 33. our 34. to fight 35. a 36. snowy 37. so

【导语】这是一篇记叙文，文章介绍了长征的历史背景、红军的艰难历程，并号召人们铭记长征、学习长征精神。

31. 句意：今年标志着长征胜利 90 周年。主语“This year”为第三人称单数，句子陈述客观事实，使用一般现在时，“mark”需变为第三人称单数形式“marks”。

32. 句意：他们从江西出发，途经数省，最终抵达陕西。“start from”是固定搭配，意为“从……出发”。

33. 句意：据说我们的士兵在长征中走了大约 25000 里（约 12500 公里）。修饰名词“soldiers”需用形容词性物主代词，提示词“we”的形容词性物主代词为“our”。

34. 句意：在学校里，你可能在书本中学到士兵们经历了许多困难，并且不遗余力地对抗敌

人。“spare no effort to do sth.”是固定搭配，意为“不遗余力做某事”，“fight”需变为动词不定式形式“to fight”。

35. 句意：在四川，士兵们冒着枪林弹雨，艰难地匍匐穿过由 13 根铁链组成的泸定桥。“had a hard time doing sth.”是固定搭配，意为“艰难地做某事”，需要填不定冠词“a”。

36. 句意：他们还翻越了海拔 4930 米的积雪覆盖的夹金山。修饰名词“Jiajin Mountain”需用形容词，“snow”的形容词形式为“snowy”，意为“被雪覆盖的”。

37. 句意：他们没有足够的食物吃，所以经常饿上好几天。前后两个分句为因果关系，前半句是原因，后半句是结果，因此用连词“so”连接。

38. 句意：许多士兵失去了他们的生命。“their”为形容词性物主代词，后接复数名词，“life”的复数形式为“lives”。

39. 句意：大约 86000 人参加了长征，但到达陕西时只剩下大约 7000 人。“be left”，“剩下”，系表结构。此句是过去时，系动词要用 were。

40. 句意：这样，我们才能真正理解长征精神：永不畏惧困难，永不放弃。修饰动词“understand”需用副词，“true”的副词形式为“truly”。

41. They are talking about whether it is OK to lie to children. 42. Because telling white lies can make children feel good and keep them positive, they will be ready to try again (like playing soccer again). 43. They both think that it is not good to lie to children. 44. I agree with Parviz. I think parents should be honest but don't have to tell the whole truth. They can guide children to think for themselves, which protects children's feelings and keeps honesty at the same time.

【导语】本文围绕“父母是否应该对孩子说善意的谎言”这一话题展开，以一位母亲对儿子足球表现说谎的经历为引子，呈现了不同观点对“对孩子说谎”的讨论，探讨了善意谎言的利弊、教育方式与亲子关系的平衡。

41. 第一段引出了一位母亲的问题“Is it ever OK to lie to a child?”，下面都是围绕这个事情的对错来进行的讨论。所以他们讨论的话题就是母亲的问题“对孩子撒谎是否正确？”

42. Bay 212 告知了说善意的谎言的必要原因“Your purpose was to make him feel good. Now he's ready to play soccer again”，原因可以引用原文。

43. Bernie 说“I don't think there is ever a good reason to lie to our children”，Missy 说“You lied to make your son ... but you missed a good chance to teach him a life lesson”，两者的共同处都是认为谎言对孩子不好

44. 本题是开放性试题，答案不唯一，但观点需基于文中事实，结合文章内容和自己对“跟孩子撒谎”的看法、理由，合理作答即可。

Dear Bill,

Thanks for your letter. And it's a good chance for me to share my middle school life. In my eyes, it is "unforgettable". I still remember clearly that once I failed a difficult math exam. I felt so upset that I even wanted to give up. However, my math teacher talked to me patiently and told me not to lose heart. My classmates also offered to help me review lessons after class. With their support and my hard work, I finally made great progress in math. This experience taught me that difficulties can always be overcome with kindness, support and effort. I will always cherish these warm memories.

Yours,

Li Hua
